

Campaign Performance Summary

Marketing Effectiveness Review — Q1 2025 (Jan–Mar)

Document Type:	Marketing Intelligence Report
Prepared:	April 10, 2025
Authors:	Marketing Analytics Team
Version:	1.3
Classification:	CONFIDENTIAL — Internal Use Only

1. Overview

StreamVault's Q1 2025 marketing investment totalled approximately $6.2M across eight channels and 25 active titles. This report evaluates spend efficiency, channel performance, and title-level ROI. All metrics are sourced from the internal marketing_spend.csv dataset supplemented by platform conversion telemetry.

Total Marketing Spend (Q1) $6.2M +9.3% vs Q4 2024	Total Impressions 182M +21.4% YoY	Blended CTR 2.89% +0.31 pp QoQ	Avg Conversion Rate 3.14% +0.22 pp QoQ
---	--	---	---

2. Channel Performance Breakdown

Social Media and Search Ads dominated the channel mix in Q1, together accounting for 45% of total spend. Streaming Pre-roll delivered the highest conversion rate (4.8%) while OOH Billboards — though low in direct conversions — contributed measurably to brand recall in high-density markets (Mumbai, Delhi, New York).

Channel	Spend (USD)	Spend %	Impressions	Clicks	CTR	Conversions	Conv. Rate	CPA (USD)
Social Media	$1,550,000	25%	51.2M	1,843,200	3.60 %	73,728	4.00%	$21.02
Search Ads	$1,240,000	20%	31.0M	1,054,000	3.40 %	36,890	3.50%	$33.62
Display Ads	$930,000	15%	37.2M	744,000	2.00 %	14,880	2.00%	$62.50
Streaming Pre-roll	$930,000	15%	18.6M	669,600	3.60 %	32,141	4.80%	$28.94
Influencer	$620,000	10%	15.5M	620,000	4.00 %	24,800	4.00%	$25.00
Email	$496,000	8%	9.9M	594,000	6.00 %	29,700	5.00%	$16.70
OOH Billboard	$248,000	4%	12.4M	0	N/A	~2,480	est.	$100.00
TV Spot	$186,000	3%	6.2M	93,000	1.50 %	2,790	3.00%	$66.67

Email campaigns delivered the lowest CPA at $16.70 and the highest CTR at 6.0%, confirming that re-engagement of existing subscribers is the most cost-efficient acquisition lever. Recommend increasing Email allocation by 3–5 pp in Q2.

3. Title-Level Marketing ROI

The table below compares estimated Q1 marketing spend per title against platform revenue attributed to that title. Return on Ad Spend (ROAS) is calculated as estimated revenue divided by marketing spend. Titles with ROAS below 2.0x are flagged for spend review.

Title	Genre	Mkt Spend	Est. Revenue	ROAS	Status
Stellar Run	Sci-Fi	$1,017K	$4,400K	4.33x	STRONG
Desert Storm 2025	Action	$1,504K	$3,550K	2.36x	GOOD
Last Kingdom	Drama	$1,045K	$2,920K	2.79x	GOOD
The Hollow Men	Thriller	$570K	$2,330K	4.09x	STRONG
Echoes of Tomorrow	Drama	$760K	$2,350K	3.09x	GOOD
Laugh Track	Comedy	$214K	$300K	1.40x	REVIEW
Just Kidding	Comedy	$182K	$265K	1.46x	REVIEW
The Funny Bone	Comedy	$145K	$210K	1.45x	REVIEW
Laughing Out Loud	Comedy	$168K	$230K	1.37x	REVIEW
Carbon Echo	Sci-Fi	$1,102K	$2,180K	1.98x	WATCH

4. Stellar Run — Campaign Deep-Dive

Stellar Run's marketing strategy is a case study in launch sequencing. The campaign opened with a 4-week teaser on Social Media and Streaming Pre-roll in December 2024, building 8.2M impressions before release. At launch (Jan 15), Influencer partnerships with 14 Sci-Fi content creators across YouTube and Instagram drove a 340% spike in organic search for the title. The second-wave push in February targeted re-engagement via Email and expanded Search Ads into Tier-2 Indian cities.

Phase	Timeline	Channels	Spend	Result
Pre-launch Teaser	Dec 1 – Jan 14	Social, Pre-roll	$284K	8.2M impressions, 62K clicks
Launch Burst	Jan 15 – Jan 31	Influencer, Social, Search	$412K	340% organic search spike
Sustain	Feb 1 – Feb 28	Email, Search, Display	$198K	883 views (64% of total)
Long Tail	Mar 1 – Mar 31	Search, Social retarget	$123K	Maintained top-5 ranking

5. Comedy Genre — Spend Efficiency Issues

Despite relatively modest budgets, Comedy titles in Q1 achieved the worst ROAS on the platform (average 1.42x). Investigation reveals three compounding issues:

- Audience mismatch: Comedy campaigns were targeted at 18–24-year-olds (platform norm), but this segment showed the lowest Comedy affinity in historical data (CTR 1.1% vs 3.6% average).
- Wrong channels: Significant Comedy budget was allocated to OOH Billboards — effective for mass awareness but inefficient for a niche genre with a specific audience profile.

- Late-stage marketing: Two comedy titles (Laugh Track, The Funny Bone) had their peak campaign spend 3–4 weeks post-release, missing the critical opening-week discovery window.
-

6. Q2 2025 Recommendations

1. Reallocate 8% of Comedy spend to Email and Influencer channels with genre-targeted audiences.
 2. Increase Stellar Run's international Search Ads budget by $80K to capture growing US/UK Sci-Fi intent.
 3. Establish 90-day ROAS threshold: titles below 2.0x after 30 days trigger spend review.
 4. Test Streaming Pre-roll for Romance titles — the genre's 3.6% rating average may respond to visual trailers.
 5. Pilot A/B creative testing for Thriller titles across Social Media to identify highest-CTR thumbnail formats.
-

Source data: marketing_spend.csv (123 campaign records), regional_performance.csv. Revenue estimates are modelled; actuals subject to Finance reconciliation.